Local Gossip

A deep snow fell Monday night.

Any man who will kick on this winter should be tarred and feathered.

Wanted.

Wanted 20,000 pounds of wool. High est market price. W. R. Gott & Co.

Read our clubbing offer with the Cincinnati daily Post. Only $2.50 for both papers one year.

All passenger trains have been crowded lately. The present service is fine, and our people appreciate it.

There will be preaching at the Presbyterian church next Sunday, and every member is urged to be present.

The Baptist Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Susan Salter, at Miss Sallie Tillet's next Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

The court day horse jockeys were put on an out-of-the-way street Monday, for which a suffering public is duly grateful.

Rev. Chas. Brown, of Knoxville, will preach at the Presbyterian church the 1st Sunday in March. As he will likely be called as pastor, every member is asked to be present.

The warm days last week caused many citizens to get out the garden tools and put them in shape. Many gardens have already been cleaned. Better wait 'til summer, brethren.

Engineer Bradley, the oldest on the K. C., was badly injured in a wreck near London last Friday. He has many friends along the road who hope for his speedy recovery. He is sixty years old, and one of the fastest runners in Kentucky.

A large congregation worshiped at the Methodist church Sunday morning. A deep interest was manifested by the people. The singing was excellent, especially the beautiful solo rendered by Mr. Parr, the service at 7 P. M. was well attended.

"Home coming week" with the Garrard county people will be the week of July 18, 19, 20. That's the week of the Lancaster fair, and all those who have wandered from the old Kaintucky home will be Garrardward to get another slice of old ham and a piece of home made light bread.

Dave Ross, known to his many friends as "Raggy," tells The Record he is a candidate for sheriff on the next Democratic ticket. If he makes as good a sheriff as he has proven to be the model jailor, Garrard will have every reason to feel proud of "Raggy." He's all right.

The subject of Eld. Tindler's Sunday morning discourse is Foreign Missions, the evening subject being "A Real Man."

Good Sale of Tobacco.

W. T. Noel, of Buckeye, sold his crop of seven hogheads of tobacco to the Central House, Louisville, weight 8155 pounds, for $9.25 all 'round at home.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society will have a handkerchief and candy sale in the room over the Joseph Mercantile Co's store Saturday, March 17th. The public is cordially invited, and your patronage will be appreciated.

The will of the late Squire Wm. H. Kinnaird was probated in the county court Monday. His son, Capt. Wm. J. Kinnaird is the executor, the estate being left to the widow and two single daughters, Misses Kate and Lillian.

A large crowd was attracted to the store of Currey & Herndon by the reception Saturday afternoon. Hot coffee, chocolate and several new brands of wafers and crackers were served, while each lady was presented with a pretty carnation.

W. C. T. U. Moves

The Womans Christian Temperance Union has accepted the offer of the Masonic Lodge of the use of its rooms, and the next meeting will be held there. The meetings of the Union are well attended and the organization was never in better condition.

A Big Improvement.

The congregation at the local Baptist church has purchased very handsome pews for the building, and they will be placed in a few days. They are golden oak, with hand carved ends. Being of circular form, this will make one of the prettiest and most comfortable churches in Central Kentucky.

Mr. J. Will James, of Crab Orchard died at his home in that city Sunday night after a brief illness of hemorrhage of the stomach. He was 45 years of age, and a splendid gentleman. He leaves a widow, who was Miss Maggie Buchanan. The remains were interred at Crab Orchard Tuesday.

Midnight Prowlers.

The midnight prowler has been making his rounds. The home of Judge Burnside was visited the other night, but the six or eight shots fired at him by "Pete" and "Mole" will have a tendency to keep Mr. Prowler away from there in the future. This is the medicine every housekeeper should be prepared to give parties prowling about their premises. Ruy a gun and be ready.

Popular Goods.

The National Biscuit Co., whose goods are handled by Currey & Herndon, are building up an immense trade in his section with the superior goods they make. Their goods are the purest made, always fresh and give universal satisfaction to the trade. Ask for the National Biscuit Company's goods, and you will never be disappointed.

Moves To Georgetown.

Mr. C. T. Jenkins, one of the best young men Garrard county ever produced, has decided to locate in Georgetown, and will move to that thriving city next week. He will likely engage in the feed supply business, and his success is assured. We dislike very much to give up good citizens like Mr. Jenkins, but wish him well in his new location.

New Type for Record Office.

Mr. Wm. Mingle, representing the Keystone Type Foundry, Philadelphia, was here Saturday to take an order from The Record for a big lot of new type and other material for our job department. The Record has the best assortment of job type, the newest and best presses, in fact every modern equipment for turning out work of the best quality.

A Natural-Born Hustler.

We don't believe a better newspaper man than Ed Walton was ever born into the world, and we are positive that a bigger-hearted or more honorable man never occupied the tripod. He was in Lancaster Monday working in the interest of his most excellent paper, the Stanford Interior Journal, and his visit to our sanctum was greatly enjoyed and appreciated. He is publishing one of the best papers in the South, and richly deserves the success with which he is meeting. Ed Walton never knowingly said a mean thing about anyone, and will go his length anywhere for a friend. Our only regret is that there are not more men of his make-up.

A Good Idea.

Prof. J. H. Lippard, of Cincinnati, was here this week with the view of establishing a branch of Lippard's Business College in Lancaster during the summer months. These branch schools have been quite a success in other towns, and there is no reason why it would not be a great benefit here. There are many boys in Lancaster who are growing up like gymnasium weeds, learning no profession or trade, and their parents should see that they are given a good business course. If the school is established, due notice will be given through these columns, and the opportunity should be taken advantage of by parents who wish their sons to amount to something.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society has engaged Dr. T. T. Eaton, of Louisville, to deliver one of his popular lectures here Friday evening, April 27th. His subject will be "Poor Kin." If

W. H. Harris minstrels will show at the court house Friday night, the 9th. Manager Harris has engaged a number of special artists to assist, and a fine show is assured. Special seats for white people.

Flower Sale.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society will have a flowersale at the store of C. D. Powell, beginning on April 15th and continuing several days. A splendid assortment will be on hand, and you buy them at very reasonable prices. Remember the date, if.

The Hotel.

Almost enough money to build the hotel has been made up, and a meeting will be held in a few days to secure the remainder. This is the best move Lancaster hustlers have ever brought about, as it means a revival in business and a general awakening of the town which could have never been brought about in any other manner. If you have your town's interest at heart, put your shoulder to the wheel, and help secure this money, and show that you are of some benefit to the community.

Court Day.

A large crowd attended county court Monday, and business with the merchants was fairly good. Capt. Am. Burn, the veteran auctioneer, kindly gives The Record the following report: About 150 or 200 cattle at the stock pens, most of them changing hands at prices ranging from 3 1/4 to 4 cts. Mules were brisk, price ranging from $100 to $200. There was a large demand for plug horses, prices ranging from $20 to $65. Sows and pigs sold from $15 to $32. C. P. Underwood sold a cow and calf for $22.50. W. S. Bettis sold a three year-old mule to Woods Walker for $187.50.

A Pretty Entertainment.

The Christian church was crowded Thursday evening, by our people who were attracted by the Lilliputian wedding. The different characters were taken by the little folk of Lancaster, and, in full dress coats, and evening costumes presented a scene as novel as it was pretty. Lack of space prevents going into detail, but we will say that each participant performed his or her part with the ease and grace of an old actor. During the evening the audience was favored by vocal solos by Misses Lillie and Mattie May Leavelle, Miss Katherine Conn and Mr. Parr, which were greatly enjoyed. Miss Bessie Elkin, of Louisville, who managed the wedding, was warmly complimented on the success of the entertainment, and the ladies are deeply grateful to her for her kindness in coming and arranging the entertainment. A neat sum was realized for the Ladies Aid Society.

The Rural Routes.

The two rural routes now in operation in Garrard county are proving a great blessing to those citizens who have taken advantage of the splendid services afforded by them, but unless the people along the lines all put up boxes, there is a strong probability that they will be either discontinued or only three deliveries a week. We made Uncle Sam wants to give the service provided the people want it and appreciate it, but if only a handful of patrons put up boxes, the Government will not maintain the routes. There are many people living along the lines who have not put up boxes and our advice is that they have boxes established at once, as Uncle Sam is pruning his routes and many have been discontinued in this section of the state. The rural carriers sell stamps, register letters, and give the rural patrons every advantage of the town post office. If you live along one of these routes, have a box put up. It costs only about a dollar.

A New Bank.

Lancaster is to have a new bank, the name to be The Garrard Bank and Trust Co. The capital stock is $5,000, most all of which has been subscribed. The institution will purchase the corner lot and erect its own building in the new hotel, owing up to the second floor. A large basement will be built, absolutely fireproof and burglarproof, in which will be constructed safety deposit boxes to be rented. The room will extend back on Richmond street almost half the depth of the lot, the remainder of lot on Richmond street being used for the dining room and ladies entrance to the hotel. The list of stockholders is made up of Garrard county's most prosperous, progressive and influential citizens, and success of the institution is foregone conclusion. The stockholders are located all over Garrard county, and one has been allowed to have any large number of shares, which is a mighty good idea. As the stock is about all subscribed, a meeting will be held soon and the organization perfected. No officers have been selected, though those talked of are splendid men for the places.

Look, Listen!

Have your cisterns cleaned now with the patent cleaner and catch March rains for Summer. Prices reasonable, satisfaction guaranteed, Hatcher & Ball.

A MISTAKE.

Through an error last week, we were made to quote the price of The Cincinnati Daily Post and The Central Record at $3.50 when it should have been $2.50. We can send you both papers at two and a half for one year. This is the best newspaper clubbing rate we have ever been able to offer, and many are taking advantage of it. Remember, you must pay for The Central Record in order to get the advantage of this offer. Send us $2.50 and we will send you The Central Record and Cincinnati Daily Post for one year. The Post's market reports can not be excelled and the paper is printed at two o'clock in the afternoon and reaches Lancaster at 8:26 the same evening. This offer will last for only a few days. Come a running.

No Place Like Kentucky.

Ex-Senator Wm. Lindsey is nothing if not a Kentuckian, and he is quoted as saying he would rather make a bare living in his native state than be a millionaire elsewhere. While at Frankfort not long since on some legal business, he accepted an invitation to address the General Assembly, and the legislators were delighted with his address. In connection with the "Home Coming" of Kentuckians, he told a good story. "I expect I am like most Kentuckians in New York," he said. "They all talk of the time when they can get enough money to come back home and really live. It reminds me of a story told at the Kentucky Society banquet in the metropolis recently. According to this tale, an Eastern man went to heaven, where found everyone enjoying themselves with the exception of a certain crowd of men who were chained to stakes and wore a discontented expression. 'What's the matter with those fellows?' inquired the Easterner of St. Peter. 'Why, those men are Kentuckians,' replied the venerable gate keeper, 'and every time they get loose they make a break for Kentucky.' That's just about the way I feel, and when the time comes for me to die, which I hope will be some years hence, I want to be brought right back here to Frankfort and rest in the old graveyard on the hill."

Alex Bishop, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia, is better to day.

Lancaster Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, has so many petitions on hand that special meetings are being held to keep up with the work. Quite a number are wanting to get through the Commandery in time to attend the annual Conclave at Paris in May.

Editor Walton, in his splendid Frank fort Journal, jumps all over the Kentucky editors for their failure to properly boost up his town when the citizens thereof "wined and dined" the scribes some time since. It was bad taste on the part of the scribes to fall make good, but fact of the matter is the Kentucky editor is stuffed full of beer and sandwiches so often and expected to give five or six dollars worth of space therefor, that his pen has grown somewhat weary and the custom y d pe fall to revive him. Next town to "entertain" should have high balls, or Manhattan cocktails, and, we believe, the change will have the desired off ect. Brer Walton also says the country editor is swelled up. Well, we know of nothing that will cause a quicker or greater swelling than beer and baker's bread sandwiches.

The Louisville Board of Public Safety has ordered the theatres closed on the Sabbath, and last Sunday the usual crowd of people who lay aside all thought of holy writ and matters connected with their soul's salvation were forced to seek other fields to while away the time. The present board is doing all in its power to have the laws enforced in the Falls City, and if the people will back them up, about the toughest city in America can be made decent and orderly. There's always the wisecrack to throw cold water on every movement for the better, and Louisville has her quota of wise guys who howl down every movement the new board is making. The only way for officials to do is to stick to what they believe to be right, and pay no attention to the whines of a few kickers.

Open work stocking time is rapidly approaching, and the festive mosquito, and other old codgers like Editors Jim Allen and W P Walton are due light.

Louisville is to have no more Sunday theatres. We guess the old city will be called "tight," but we think the term "tightness" will fit better.

The horseless carriage was, indeed, a wonder, but Louisville with a Sunday-less "Buck" has that invention skinned several blocks.

Have you noticed that in most applications for divorce the wife is only a bout half as old as the husband? The moral is obvious.

The jowl and greens crop is fine.
Now, how can any man, with as much feeling as a porcelain doorknob, kick on life?

position as school "marm" at Rice Academy after much solicitation by her friends here. She graduated a few years ago, at Lancaster, receiving highest honors in her class and no doubt she will give entire satisfaction to her patrons.

Mrs Henry Baker met with sudden death a few days ago. While watching the loading of a large saw-log the log broke loose from the men and rolled over on Mrs Baker who was standing near by; after much effort her body was taken from the heavy piece of timber crushed and bruised beyond restitution. She leaves a husband and several small children.

The "Open Door" Policy.

"Be sure to agree with the girl's father in politics," said the experienced man, giving hints to the young lover.

That night after he had enjoyed the young lady's society for an hour, her father came in, and the youth started conversation by asking: "What is your opinion of the Moroccan question?"

"I am in favor of the open-door policy," said the old gentleman, stilly;
"and this is your hat, I believe?"— Tit-Bits.

Sue Was Willing.

Said the lad to the lassie: "We two Will marry some day, won't we, Sue?"
She hung down her head And bashfully said:
"I don't care a darn if we do."

now I had married for money.

Sam Jones' Temperance Lecture.

Massey Hall, Toronto.

"I have been fighting whiskey for thirty two years, and I am going to fight it as long as I live. I am going to hit him as long as I have a fist, kick him as long as I have a foot, bite him as long as I have a tooth, and after that gum him till I die.

"The only way to get rid of rascals is to quit raising them, and the only way to get rid of drunkards is to quit raising them, too.

"I don't believe a first class fool would drink liquor. I don't believe a second or a third class fool would drink liquor. You've got to get away down in the first to get a fool that will.

"One day, in a meeting like this a man got up, and said: 'You can abuse whiskey all you like, but it's the best eyesight medicine ever made. There's my brother, Mike, born blind, never saw a wink in his life. He began to drink whiskey, and inside of four weeks he saw snakes all over the house.' Now I expect a good many of you old roosters have been using that kind of eye medicine.

"You talk about prosperity. I don't care how much you have, in land or money or stock, if you have a son that's a drunkard, or a daughter who can't trust out of your sight, you are bankrupt already. And if you have a true wife, if you have a noble daughter and a son that is a credit to you, you are a millionaire if you haven't got a dollar. And if that is true, what do you want with saloons in Toronto? Any man in this town who favors saloons deserves that every one of his sons dies a drunkard, and that every daughter has a drunken husband. The man who would vote for saloons ought to be disfranchised.

"The saloon would not be here if the churches were to say once, and mean it, 'You have got to go.' If that is so, then the churches are to blame for every drunkard that staggers into hell and for every open gateway to hell.

"You say you believe in high license that's the kind you have here, it understand. You get $250 for each saloon, and have 150 saloons, that's $37,500. You have a population of 235,000. Now, divide up the $37,500, and that makes about 20 cents per head of the population. And if the liquor traffic walks up to the beautiful city of Toronto and offers it twenty cents per head for the right to debauch the town and bring damnation to citizens, and you deliberately sell out, preachers and all for 20 cents per head. Brother! what is a 200 pound hog worth?"

A voice: "Twelve dollars."

"And folks twenty cents. Well, folks don't you wish you was a hog. One hog worth as much as sixty people. Why, brother, you and your whole family are not worth a sucking pig. They used to sell a negro for a thousand dollars in the South, but you can buy fine-looking men here for 20 cents a piece.

"We go into spasms about old Bishop Potter opening a saloon with prayer. I don't know what that old rooster will do next. He's been dining and wining with four hundred until even the angels don't know but Bishop Potter has just as much right to open a saloon with prayer as any Canadian or American has to open one with his vote.

A LETTER FROM NEW MEXICO.

Roswell New Mex'co,
February 15th, 1906.

Editor Central Record.

Dear Sir:—You will find enclosed P O Order for one dollar to renew my subscription to your welcome weekly visitor, in this distant land. It has been about three years since I wrote you a rather long letter, describing our country as I saw it then, and which you so kindly gave space in your paper.
I promised in that letter to write you occasionally to let our friends, at home, know how we were getting along but I have somewhat neglected that promise, however if you should have a spare column or two at any time with nothing better to publish you might fill the space with the contents of this letter.

We have had a fairly good and pleasant winter, with a day or two of what we call bad weather, thrown in now and then to let us know what the people further north and east are experiencing. For the last two months the thermometer has ranged from 20 to 30 degrees above in the morning, and 50 to 70 in the middle of the day; we had several snows in December and the thermometer went as low as 10 above several mornings. You see we have just enough cold here to kill disease germs and to keep insects and worms that feed on plants and trees from becoming too numerous. I sit now, as I am writing in my front porch, gallery as the western people call it, and the sunshine makes me feel as if I should pull off my coat in order to be comfortable. The pines and willow trees are beginning to show the green in their buds and will be leaved out in a few days, and the early gardeners are planting onions, radishes, lettuce spinach etc.
Some of the market gardeners have already had some of these vegetables on the market. When I wrote before I stated that I was well pleased with the climate, I am still more than pleased with it, and I do not think there can be found, on the globe, a better and more healthful climate. The winters are usually dry and never excessively cold; and the summers are pleasant, almost every night in the summer season one requires one or more covers.

Our town continues to grow steadily with one or more business houses and a dozen or more dwellings going up all the time. We have three large public school buildings, with about 1,100 pupils enrolled; a military institute with 120 young men in attendance; a $10-000,000 Carnegie Library; a St. Mary's Hospital, now nearly completed and will cost $25,000.00. The Catholic and all the principal protestant churches are represented by good church buildings. We have three National Banks with one million dollars deposit, which I think is very good for a town of 6,000 people; two steam laundries, two ice factories; one canning factory; one cement block and cement shingle factory, one tiling factory, two wholesale groceries, and dry-goods stores, one wholesale Hardware store, and last and best the gambling houses will be cut out entirely in a few months, and the saloons will be almost shut out by high license. These two evils are right hard to deal with in a new county and the people will have to be educated to a little different level before things can be cut entirely out. By a process of grading and the natural consistency of our soil the streets are as firm and as smooth as the best macadamized roads in your country. In the last two years there has been built about fourteen miles of cement side walk.

The country is growing much faster new than the town, especially it is being settled up further down the valley to a distance of about sixty miles south of us. The migrating companies are bringing in from 200 to 300 home-seekers every two weeks, and quite a number of these buying property each trip.

A great many of those who buy property are improving it by putting down artesian wells with which to irrigate the land and making other substantial improvements. There are now over 500 flowing wells each affording enough water to irrigate from 100 to 600 acres and the well inspector says that there is no sign of decreased flow but on the contrary most of the old wells show an increase of pressure.

Apples and alfalfa hay are still the principal products. Pears, plums, grapes and almost all kinds of small fruits do well. We had a good crop of Indian corn last year but that is not always the case. Some summers are so dry that the tassels are dried up before the grain is fertilized through the silk.
Some parties from Kansas City are contemplating putting up an Alfalfa meal factory this year at a cost of about $40,000.00. When this is completed there will be a home market for all the alfalfa that can be raised. The average yield of alfalfa is five tons to the acre, secured from four or five cuttings; and sells at $6.00 to $12.00 per ton according to the season of the year. We have as fine apples as are grown any where and they are of much better quality than the same variety grown in the east, even the old Ben Davis is juicy and a fairly good apple. Apple orchards from ten to twenty years old will produce apples worth from $100 00 to $500.00 per acre. There is quite an oil boom on hand now, and experts from other oil regions say we have the best indications for oil about twelve miles east of Roswell of any section they have ever examined. A company with considerable capital has been formed and have begun to drill a well.

I have been sorry at various times to note in your paper the death of so many of my old friends, who at the time I left Kentucky seemed to have the prospect of a much longer life than myself. I am glad to note that you have recovered so as to be able to take charge of your paper again. We are all in fairly good health. I have been so long fulfilling my promise this time I guess I had better not promise to write again.

J. X. Dunn.

Ulcer of the Stomach

Insidious Nature of the Disease How to Recognize and Cure It.

Ulcer of the stomach may exist for years without very marked symptoms, excepting those caused by indigestion. It is due to an inflammation which affects the membrane of the stomach so that it is eaten away by the gastric juices.

In good health, the stomach resists the action of the gastric juices, but when weakened, the membrane is badly nourished and the digestive fluids act upon it as well as upon the food, keeping up until perforation of the stomach occurs. In advanced cases of ulcer of the stomach there is much discomfort after eating, with a constant gnawing sensation between meals, pain from the pit of the stomach back to the shoulder blade.

At the first symptoms of indigestion, treatment should at once be started with Mion-a. This is a scientific remedy adapted specifically to one purpose, the cure of stomach troubles. It is uniformly successful that R E McRoberts signed guarantee with every 50 cent box that the money will be refunded if it does not cure.

Mion-a is not a patent or secret remedy, but is a combination of the purest and most reliable of remedies for strengthening the digestive organs and building up the whole system. Use it for a few days and there is no reason why you should not be able to eat any food you like at any time with out fear of distress.

THE JEWS AND PALESTINE.

Present Condition of the Country and Its Possibilities When the Turk Is Eliminated.

There are now nearly a score of Jewish colonies in various parts of Palestine supporting themselves by tilling the land and waiting hopefully for the day when the sons of Judah shall possess sovereignty over their ancient inheritance. The number of Jews in the Promised Land has increased astonishingly of late years, so that there are now more Jews in Jerusalem itself than there were in all Palestine 30 years ago. Indeed 20 years ago there were not more than 12,000 Jews in Jerusalem and not over 30,000 in all the Holy Land. At present the Jews in Jerusalem are put down at 45,000 and in all the country at over 100,000. The recent influx of Jews has been twice the number that returned with Zerubbabel from Babylon. And so soon as a favorable move is made upon the political chess board of the orient, the Jews are prepared to seize the opportunity for repatriation in still greater multitudes. There is no doubt that with their present wealth and enterprise they could plant such a colony there as does not elsewhere exist in the known world, says the Chicago Interior. While it would be impossible for a title of the present Jewish population of the world to make the Holy Land their home or to win from it subsistence, they would make that country under such modern methods of cultivation and with modern facilities for trade "the joy of the whole earth." But so long as the unscrupulous Turk rules it with his scimitar it will remain what it is today, "the Nibbe of nations."

tury, and the present year will be kept in missionary circles and especially in the councils of the American Board, as the Haystack centennial. Little is known about that prayer meeting held under the haystack to which the five young men resorted for shelter from the thunderstorm that overtook them. Even the date has not been given, save that it was on a summer afternoon in 1806. But the place is known and the consecration which they there made of themselves to engage personally in the mission to the heathen has resulted, it is said, in the greatest movement which Christian America has seen within a century. When the campaign is ended, it is believed that 10,000 men will have agreed to stand behind the American board with a special gift this year of the haystack centennial, and that the board will come to its annual meeting in Williamstown and North Adams next October reporting a round million of dollars as its income for the centennial year.

BRAVE SOLDIERS OF CROSS

Ngoni Christians in British Central Africa Display True Spirit of Christian Heroism.

Rev. Donald Fraser, of the Livingstonia mission (United Free Church of Scotland), sends encouraging facts to the Record of Christian Work as to the readiness of Christian teachers to work for Christ in the face of hardships. In a recent letter he says:

In February a party of 34 Ngoni teachers went out from Mizimbo to carry on work among the Senza. They were not long at work before sickness broke out among them, and in March, Kantiti Zimba, one of the brightest and most lovable of them, died. The news of his death and of the severe illness of his fellow teacher was a painful shock, and we feared that it would dampen the missionary spirit of the teachers. On the Sabbath following I spoke to the people, telling them of the glory that had come to Kantiti, the first to lay down his life for the Senza, and asked for volunteers to take his place. No sooner had I entered the vestry than a line of boys followed, among them five of our best teachers, asking to be sent to take Kantiti's place. I accepted their offer and sent them out to occupy the vacant place and open new work. In the deepening Christian spirit which came to some through this incident we have rejoiced that to the Ngoni "it has been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer in His behalf."

MARTYRS VINDICATED.

Investigation Shows Missionaries Did Not Bring On Fatal Outbreak at Lienchou.

Full details of the distressing instance of mob violence in Lienchou, south China, have now been received, says the Record of Christian Work. From these reports it is clear that the missionaries were in no way to blame for the attack made on them. Dr. Machie removed a toy cannon which was on the mission premises, but later returned it to the priests of the temple. They had built, for idolatrous purposes, a shed which encroached in the mission property, thus breaking a contract previously made. Some ruffians excited the crowd with tales of sacrilege and further infuriated them by showing a skeleton as an indication of how the missionaries treat Chinese patients. The mission property was de-

Christian Growth in Japan. The increase of Christians in Japan during the year 1904 was about ten per cent. In round numbers the Christians of Japan—Protestants, Roman Catholic and Greek—number about 154,000 church members, with a community of about 457,000.

NEW CHAIR FOR MISSIONS.

Yale Adds a Professor of Theory and Practice of Missions to Divinity Faculty.

A professor of the theory and practice of missions has been added to the divinity faculty of Yale university. The appointee is Rev. Harlan P. Beach. From the news item as published in the New York Sun, we learn further: "The plan of this professorship is to allow Mr. Beach one year out of every three for foreign study and travel, especially in the far east. By this method the university will be kept in close touch, not only with the Yale mission in China, but with all the educational and religious movements in non-Christian countries. Mr. Beach, who was for ten years a missionary in China, is the author of a standard work on missions, 'The Geography and Atlas of Protestant Missions,' and is recognized as one of the leading missionary authorities in the world."

A REVIVAL NEEDED.

Cause of Missions Would Be Advanced If Christians in This Country Were Revived.

Rev. W. J. Dawson, well known in this country, through the missions he has conducted in various centers, says: "We are all praying to-day for a great revival, but assuredly no cause has so much to gain from a great revival as the missionary cause. Missionary fervor has always followed in the wake of revivals. The rise of the Jesuits, the birth of the Franciscan order, the work of Wesley, the success of the Salvation Army, each is followed in turn by the organization of immense enterprises for the conversion of the heathen. And it is what with that lesson in mind that I say that the true crux of the missionary problem to-day is the condition of life and thought in our churches. It is in the inquiry rooms of Boston and Chicago and San Francisco that India and China will be won for Christ. The greatest of all missionaries to the heathen may prove to be the evangelist who never leaves his native land. A converted America means nothing less than a converted world."

BAPTIST IN CABINET.

David Lloyd-George, Who Made Address Before Baptist World Congress, Honored.

One of the members of the newly formed liberal cabinet is David Lloyd-George, the young member of parliament from Wales, who made a memorable address before the Baptist World Congress in London last summer, says Service. Mr. Lloyd-George's portfolio is that of president of the board of trade. In this position he will be able to render valuable assistance to the non-conformists who are battling so heroically against the iniquitous education act. His elevation to the office seems to be a reward for bold and persistent championship of the right. The press of England gives large place to the discussion of his personality and the probable outcome of his appointment.

WAS WITH LIVINGSTONE.

Rev. Dr. James Stewart, Who Was with the Great Apostle to Africa When He Died, Passes Away.

The recent death of Rev. Dr. James Stewart, at Lovedale, South Africa, in his seventy-fifth year, recalls the services of this faithful and distinguished friend of David Livingstone. It was through Livingstone's influence that Stewart devoted himself to the service of the Master in the great Dark Continent. He was with Livingstone when Mrs. Livingstone died on their way up the Zambesi to Nyasaland. He was present in Westminster when Livingstone was laid to rest. His own general assembly honored him for his service at Lovedale, making him its moderator upon the occasion of his last visit to Scotland. Lord Milner called him "the biggest human in South Africa." Like Livingstone, he was violently opposed to the Boers, whom he regarded as uniformly cruel in their treatment of the natives. So strongly was he in favor of the English authority in the Transvaal, says the Chicago Interior, that he sought to commit the assembly of his church to an endorsement of the English claims in the South African war. For nearly 40 years Dr. Stewart has been connected with the institutions at Lovedale, and through this work has come into touch with all the native tribes along the Zambesi and its tributaries. Lovedale is still the great native college of South Africa, but in addition to his labors there Dr. Stewart founded institutions at Bythowood and "Bhanyati." He was permitted to see results for which his great forerunner, Livingstone, blazed the way.
